Notes. Justice Statistics Analytical Service Ministry of Justice Fol. 95474 Ref 046-15

- The figure in the table relate to persons for whom these offences were the principal offences for which they were dealt with. When a defendant has been found guilty of two or more offences, it is the offence for which the heaviest penalty is imposed is shown. Where the same disposal is imposed for two or more offences, the offence selected is the offence for which the statutory maximum penalty is the most severe.
- The numbers given above may therefore not include some prosecutions where there were more than one offence on an indictment.
- The MoJ does not collect data related to individual Local authority areas and the courts shown above may cover offences that were committed in more than one LA area
- The MoJ does not hold data of the names of the landlord or agent convicted of offences.
